
Proposal: neighbourhood consultation, Ward 6

Prepared for · Ward 6 Regeneration Board

Prepared by · Civic Partners

Date · 26 September 2026

Valid until · 26 November 2026

The brief, in our words

You need residents of Ward 6 to have a genuine say in how the market square is rebuilt, and you need evidence of that consultation that will survive scrutiny at the planning committee in March.

Two constraints were stated at the briefing: the work must not read as a public-relations exercise, and it must reach people who do not attend evening meetings — specifically shift workers and parents of young children.

GUIDANCE FOR THE AUTHOR

Restate the brief before proposing anything. If the client corrects this section, you have saved yourself a rewrite of sections 2 and 4. Never open with your own credentials.

Three strands, eleven weeks

- Doorstep conversations — 240 households on a stratified sample, weekends and evenings, 10 minutes each.
- Two drop-in sessions — Saturday morning and Tuesday 7pm, in the library rather than the council building.
- A single-question postcard — freepost, delivered to every address, for people who will do nothing else.

- Any commitment that the findings will support the current scheme

The exclusions list is the most valuable page in the template. Never delete a line to make the proposal look more generous.

The parts that never change

Cancellation. Before fieldwork begins: fees incurred only. During fieldwork: completed conversations plus 20% of the remainder.

Data. Residents' contact details are ours to collect and yours to never receive. You get anonymised findings. This is not negotiable and it is why residents talk to us.

Publication. You may publish the report in full. You may not publish extracts without the method note attached.

Independence. If the findings are unfavourable to the scheme, we report them unchanged. A proposal that doesn't say this is worth less than one that does.
